CLASS HISTORY

We can look back on it all now, for our goal is in sight-the goal we have struggled toward since that day in August of 1945.

We see ourselves taking the short, deliberate steps in the primary grades. We were young and had to be guided most of the way.

But time worked her magic and one year grew into another. Guided by our teachers, the progress continued. We came upon many obstructions, nevertheless, the pace quickened.

Then suddenly high school loomed in the future. It was cloaked in rumors of strange halls, stern teachers, and big books with long names. We held our breath and took the plunge.

To our amazement it differed only slightly from what we had been accustomed. We met Mr. Van Hinson, our new home room teacher. He was a firm but understanding man. The two years with him gave us a feeling of confidence never before known.

We began to become skilled in certain subjects and to take interest in them as we completed the first two years of high school with a reasonable amount of success.

The Junior year was a wonderful one, indeed. We sold magazines and won a trip to Greensboro, where we visited the television station and had dinner at the S & W-all "on the house!" Soon afterward the ring salesman arrived. We looked longingly at the samples and finally made our decision. Then came the Junior-Senior Banquet. Much time and effort was spent in preparation and finally the big night arrived. We found the entertainment and food equally enjoyable. Between these times of chaos Mrs. Leo Rich pulled us along through our studies down to final exams.

The summer vacation seemed the shortest we had ever experienced. Almost before we knew it, we were going back to school. This was it. We had reached the top. We were seniors. Up ahead was our goal, graduation.

This would be the end of our struggle; or would it? What was beyond the goal? All of us would depart from our Alma Mater; some to colleges, some to work, some to the armed services, some to matrimony. There would be struggles too. But with the leadership, knowledge, and confidence gained at Ramseur High School these struggles will be made easier, and we shall go onward to conquer the world.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the graduating class of 1957, realizing that the days at our dear old Alma Mater must soon come to an end, do hereby leave the following items to those who we think deserve them most.

ARTICLE I

We do leave to our parents, principal, and faculty our sincere thanks for their love and understanding guidance throughout these twelve years.

ARTICLE II

Section I - We do leave to the Juniors our title "Dignified Seniors" and all the joys which go with the Senior year.

Section II - We do leave to the Sophomores our knowledge that we don't know everything as of now and what learning ability we possess.

Section III - We do leave to the Freshmen our youthful sense of humor and all our best grades, so they may start early to achieve them.

ARTICLE III

We, as individuals, do leave the following to other individuals of our choice:

I, Rebecca Kivett, do leave my ability to keep smiling to Martha Hodgin; and my cheerleading suit to Linda Simmons, hoping she will be a cheerleader.

I, Clyde Kivett, do leave my height to John York.

I, Rebecca Hodgin, do leave my attentiveness in class to Johnny Cox.

I, Forbis Kivett, do leave my title, "Mr. R. H. S.," to Steve Siler.

I, Gaynell Hutchins, do leave my title, "Apple Polisher," to Linda Wood, hoping that she'll keep it shining.

I, Jimmy York, do leave my geography book to Frank Brown, hoping he'll make as many A's as I did.

I, Jo Anne Coe, do leave my blue eyes and light hair to Mike York.

I, Harold Holmes, do leave my 230 pounds to Bill Marley in hopes he'll get down that low someday.

I, Gail Fearnire, do leave my ability to blush at the right time to Judy Hammer to keep it in the family.

I, Martha Jones, do leave my title, "Miss R. H. S.," to Winsey Cox.

I, Wayne Burgess, do leave my brain for physics to Jimmy Smith.

I, Shelby Jones, do leave my ability to get along with boys to Linda Brady; my title, "Most Talkative," to Eugene Allred.

I, Carolyn Jones, do leave my "casual look" to Glenda Hicks.

I, Alton Hollady, do leave my LOVE for eighth grade girls to my friend, Joe York.

I, Cretha Dorset, do leave my freckles to Patricia Burgess and my nickname, "Little Bit," to Rebecca Allen.

I, Gertrude Kimrey, do leave my black hair to Barbara Brady.

I, Kate Matthews, do leave my title, "Biggest Flirt," to Linda Brooks; I hope she'll make use of it.

I, Homer Leonard, do leave my title, "Quietest," to Johnny Stinson; "get it," Johnny!

I, Betty Poindexter, do leave my title, "Most Courteous," to Pauline Poindexter, to keep it in the family.

I, Anne Scott, do leave my ability to blush to anyone who desires to achieve this ability.

I, David Leonard, do leave all my notebook paper to James Whitehead.

I, Dorothy Patterson, do leave my long fingernails to Diane York, and my title, "Sweetest," to Martha Cox.

I, Lou Ellen Voss, do leave my title, "Quietest," to Mildred Thomas.

I, Bill Kivett, do leave my title, "Most Intellectual," to Larry Parks.

I, Linda Branson, do leave my title, "Wittiest," to my sister, Phyllis, and my height to Nancy Henley.

I, Danel Allred, do leave my curly hair to Donald Burgess.

I, Veln Allen, do leave my title, "Most Intellectual," to Larry Cox.

I, Ernest York, (being of sound mind) do leave my title, "Ten O'clock Scholar," to Robert McGee and my title, "Friendliest," to Milton Grose.

I, Jerry Kivett, do leave my position as full-back on the football team to Terry Burgess.

We, the bus drivers, Melvin, Irving, Johnny, and Sidney, do leave the Orange-crates and screeching brakes to anyone daring to undertake the task of driving them.

I, Faye Cox, do leave any reading ability I possess to Patricia Cox and Jackie Gates, hoping they'll use it to an advantage on all those letters.

ARTICLE IV

We, as Seniors, do leave the responsibility of carrying out this, our Last Will and Testament, to the students of Ramseur High School. To avoid any future conflict, we appoint Mrs. Lane, our beloved and worthy advisor, as sole executrix, and in her presence and in the presence of the Seniors of 1957 we do sign and seal this document on this, the twenty-third day of May in the year of 1957.

CLASS PROPHECY

Here I sit, somewhere out in space on a strange satellite, a victim of another one of Bill Kivett's stunts. It certainly is lonely way up here with no one with whom to talk. I hope Bill and his assistant, David Leonard, can get me back on earth before the Homecoming Day for the Class of '57.

While I wait, my mind dances back over the ten years since graduation. All my classmates have done well.

Carolyn Jones is a great pianist. The teenagers surely dig the jazz she dishes out.

The next vision is blurred. Ah! Now it is clearing and I see that it is Irving Byrd managing his own candy store. The sign outside reads: "Byrd's Sweet Shop."

Martha Jones is doing very well. She is touring Europe making personal appearances as an opera star.

Lou Ellen Voss, who was quiet in school, is now making her place in movies. Silent movies, of course. And what is this? Gertrude Kumrey is her understudy.

Ernest Wayne York liked to sing. He now sings lullabies to his two sons and daughter.

Say, what's this? "Buy your tickets for the wrestling match." Shelby Jean Jones is defending her title against Jo Anne Coe. It should be exciting because, as we all know, they used to stick together like Karo sticks to Syrup.

Anyone wishing to stay overnight in Ramseur would enjoy staying at the Allred Hotel owned by Daniel Allred. I believe the food would be enjoyable because Anne Scott is the cook.

Here comes Dorothy Patterson up the street. She finally decided to become a preacher's wife, you know. That must be her twin sons with her.

Sidney Williams always enjoyed driving the school bus. He is now driving for a local bus company.

Velma Allen and Faye Cox are librarians in one of our city schools. I wonder if they keep the students quiet. I shall never forget the library periods of 1957.

"Take a letter, please, Miss Hutchens," Gaynell is secretary to the president of the largest bank in Ramseur.

My, that new filling station Gail Fessmire and Johnny Jessup are building is really colossal. Some people wonder how they do so well, but I would like to know if their consciences hurt them when they sell three quarts of gas for a gallon.

Homer Leonard was the quiet man in our class. He is giving lectures on the "Art of Talking" to packed houses.

Forbis Kivett, after his football accident, is now a missionary in far off India.

Jerry Kivett finally earned his place on the Patrol force. He's doing very well, too. The teenagers in town watch for him.

Rebecca Hodgin is a home economist in Asheboro.

Clyde Kivett is driving a taxi in a nearby town.

Betty Poindexter, living up to her title of "Most Courteous," is teaching manners to her small children.

And who is this suspicious looking character sneaking up the street? It's Kate Matthews. She's working in Washington for the F.B.I.

Rebecca Kivett, who was one of our senior cheerleaders, is spending most of her time shouting to her three small sons.

Who is this coming around the corner of the school house? It's "Shorty Burgess." He drives a truck for a local pest exterminating company.

Harold Holmes has his own basketball team. His five sons make a perfect team.

Melvin Allen was our senior class president. He is now president of the local Bird Watchers' Club.

Jimmy York and Alton Hollady are real estate salesmen. One thing is wrong. They never have had an estate to sell.

Who is this we see on the third floor of the hospital? Why, it's Cretha Dorsett. She's a nurse now, and doing very well in that field.

What's this coming? It's Bill Kivett and my transportation back to earth. Maybe I'll get back in time for Homecoming Day.

CLASS POEM

We are now at the end of our high school road.
To many we must need say good-bye;
With sadness and regret we break each tie,
But we know we are able to carry our load.

Our future now is beginning to unfold.
And with memories so happy and gay,
Our problems we tackle with courage each day
Even life we should face with hearts ever bold.

Our parents and teachers have guided us through
Ever loyal to them we shall be,
Our futures are brightened with their loyalty
The lessons we've learned should help us be true.

Now classmates remember there are goals we must meet,
Strive always of ourselves to be sure,
Through defeat or struggle we must endure,
Try to conquer each task without a defeat.

GRADUATION DAY

It's a time for joy, a time for tears,
A time we'll treasure thru the years,
We'll remember always graduation day.
At the senior prom we danced til three,
And then you gave your heart to me
We'll remember always graduation day
Tho' we leave in sorrow
All the joys we've known,
We can face tomorrow
Knowing we'll never walk alone.
When the ivy walls are far behind,
No matter where our path may wind,
We'll remember always graduation day.
